#356: Clear Glass with Sandblasted Lines

This beautiful accent piece really helps to make any room stand out, transform your den or office into the envy of everyone on your street.

- A complex puzzle that must be constructed with a great deal of precision and geometry.

- Sure you could butcher a door to "just fit", but nothing says "Professional" like doors that are custom made to beautify an opening.

- Only Master Door Makers can create such a complicated network of wooden angles that fit together perfectly without any nails.
